As the capital of 13 ancient dynasties for over 1300 year, especially the Tang Dynasty (618AD-907AD) which was the most prosperous dynasty in China's ancient history, Xian has a tremendous legacy from all these great periods. Today, you'll visit the Shaanxi Provincial History Museum, a treasure house boasting 370,000 pieces of cultural relics dating from the Neolithic age to 1840 before the end of China's feudal dynasty. Regarded as one of the top museum in China, Shaanxi History Museum is famous for its collection of bronze ware, terra-cotta figurines, Gold & Silver wares, as well as the Tang Dynasty Mural Painting(a separate exhibition center in the museum, included in our tour). Visit of this museum is a journey to the 5000-year history of Chinese civilization, especially of the greatest ages.

Followed by the history museum is the Big Wild Goose Pagoda. It is located in the Buddhist monastery Da Ci En Si, and regarded as one of the landmark of Xian City. It was originally built in 652AD in the Tang Dynasty in memory of the Buddhist Monk Xuan Zang's great journey to India and his huge contribution to the Chinese Buddhism which is also the most influential religion in China!

After this very informative half day tour, transfer back to hotel.
