Climb to the top of the 600- year Ancient City Wall and enjoy an exciting cycling tour atop it. Xian Ancient City Wall was the ancient fortification, and now the oldest and most complete ancient city walls in China. Encircling a much smaller city of 14 square kilometers (5.4 sq mi). The wall measures 13.7 kilometers (8.5 mi) in circumference, 12 meters (39 ft) in height, and 15–18 meters (49–59 ft) in thickness at the base.

After the cycling tour on the wall, step into a former Confucian Temple which is peacefully located at the foot wall. It began to house a growing collection of steles and sculptures since 1087, and officially renamed as the Forest of Stone Steles in 1992. Nearly 3000 steles are stored in 7 show rooms and it boasts the biggest collection of steles in China, apart from the steles, there are also over 220 stone sculptures. Among the collections, there is stele carved with China's best calligraphy and painting, as well as the stele telling you the civilization of Chinese written characters. Come with us, flipping though China' civilization in such a special way.

After the tour, transferred back to hotel.
