☛ Victoria Peak - The Peak gives Hong Kong perhaps the most extraordinary & legendary vista of any modern city in the world. The world-famous Victoria Peak is only 552 meters high, but it provides a bird's-eye view of Victoria Harbour, Kowloon Peninsula and Hong Kong Island. It is truly one of the finest skylines in the world. Whether by day or night, Victoria Peak is a must-see.

☛ Repulse Bay - Primarily a well-to-do residential area, Repulse Bay has a relaxed, resort-like atmosphere. The wide beach is popular with residents & great for sandy strolls. The Lift Guard Club built in traditional Chinese style, features statues of Kwun Yum & Tin Hau, both protectors of fishermen. Colonial-style The Repulse Bay, resembling the original luxury hotel that occupied the site, houses shops & restaurants.

☛ Aberdeen Fishing Village - Aberdeen Harbour is home to hundreds of people living on fishing junks, juxtaposed against a modern high-rise community.

Suggested Activity: Take a sampan ride to get a close-up look at this unusual way of life.

Suggested Activity: For your own waterborne experience, board one of the two floating restaurants – including Jumbo, the world’s largest – for the Hong Kong dim sum lunch or seafood meal.
