☛ Day04 Hangzhou (B/L)

Breakfast at hotel

Today's tour will cover the city essence. In the morning, you are going to take boat to visit the West Lake, which is the soul of this unsophisticated city. The entire 5.68 square kilometers water area is surrounded by green hills and divided into many scenic spots by bridges, dykes and ancient buildings. For hundreds of years, Chinese refined scholars have written countless poems and essays to admire the beauty of the West Lake. Coming to the northwest of the West Lake, you will get to the splendid Lingyin Temple, which was constructed about 1,600 years ago and now is the oldest temple in the city. Coexisting with surrounding landscape, the temple has five main halls compactly positioned on a rising axis lying on Wulin Mountain. You could step up to see a number of ingenious Buddha statues in the halls as well as pagodas and Buddhist grottoes on the mountain.
