

UNESCO World Heritage Site – Terra-cotta Warriors & Horses

🕒 Duration

5 hours

HIGHLIGHTS

ITINERARY

Picked up from hotel.

Drive east bounded for 1 hour to the UNESCO World Heritage Site “Terra-cotta Army Museum”, which is also regarded as the 8th wonder of the world. In this museum, there are over 8000 pieces of life-size, life-like terra-cotta warriors and horses standing underground for over 2000 thousand years to protect the after-life of China’s first unifier – Emperor Qin Shi Huang(259BC-210BC). The museum was opened in 1979 and now is composed of 4 subterranean pits housing over 8000 pieces of terra-cotta warriors and horses, and 1 separate museum housing a pair of half life size bronze chariots and horses, which are the largest and most exquisite bronze ware discovered in China.

Visit of this museum will take you 2 to 2.5hrs around.

After the visit of the museum, drive for 1 hour back to hotel.
